Resources from other Libraries

Boston Public Library
https://www.bpl.org/summer/

Anti-Racism, Justice and Equality Resources from the Los Angeles Public Library
https://www.swhplibrary.org/booknook/

Resources from Maine Libraries
Jesup Memorial Library
https://jesuplibrary.org/at-home-resources/

Topsham Library’s Stay-at-home-mega-list
https://topshamlibrary.org/stay-at-home-mega-list/

Youth Services staff at Portland Public Library
For children
https://www.portlandlibrary.com/highlight/ppl-highlighted-childrens-eresources/

For Teens
https://www.portlandlibrary.com/highlight/ppl-highlighted-teen-eresources/

MCARTHUR LIVE STORY TIMES AT 10 AM EACH WEEKDAY
McArthur PL will be doing virtual "story" times and a read aloud at 10 daily.

This is our current schedule: Monday-PreK Storytime, Tuesday-Baby and Me, Wednesday-Pre K Storytime, Thursday-Baby and Me, Friday-PreK Storytime

Our virtual programs are all via Facebook Live
https://www.facebook.com/mcarthurpubliclibrary/

NORTHEAST HARBOR PUBLIC LIBRARY
http://nehlibrary.org/other-resources/
Wonderopolis: a free online learning resource visited by 13 million students, teachers, and parents annually. Each day, the site invites visitors to explore an intriguing question about the world around us and includes activities that reinforce the content learned while building background knowledge and vocabulary skills.

https://wonderopolis.org/

Resources from libraries around the world

Useful Online Resources

- Book/ Reading Related Material and Programs
- Other Arts/Culture
- Learning resources for home
- Wellbeing
- Continuing Professional Development

St. Paul Public Library Staying In Resources
New York Public Library Resources for Learning

Virtual Learning and Fun!

OAK PARK PUBLIC LIBRARY

VIRTUAL LEARNING & FUN
FOR KIDS & FAMILIES
EDUCATION RESOURCES FROM THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS (NOT JUST FOR KIDS!)

The Library of Congress offers classroom materials and professional development to help teachers use primary sources from the Library's vast digital collections.

https://www.loc.gov/education/

PARENTS! SMART-FUN-FOR-KIDS FROM THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

The Library of Congress has millions of resources online – including some of history’s most important manuscripts, photographs, maps, recordings and films – to help teachers, parents and students learn about the world around us.

https://blogs.loc.gov/loc/2020/03/parents-smart-fun-for-kids/
We're very happy to announce a new podcast from the Maine Maritime Academy's Nutting Memorial Library! Join us for a reading of "Lord Jim," by Joseph Conrad (https://anchor.fm/nml-lordjim). Each week will bring an installment of the story, following the tragedy, adventure, and redemption that begins with a life-changing decision made by a young sailor in a moment of crisis.

This book was originally published in fourteen installments in Blackwood's Magazine from October 1899 - November 1900, and we'll be matching our episodes to each of those original installments. As an added bonus, each episode will include a recommended article about the book or about Conrad's writing and his experience as a merchant mariner, all of which are available through the Library's online databases. Follow us on Facebook (https://www.facebook.com/NuttingMemorialLibrary/) or Instagram (https://www.instagram.com/mma_library/) to enjoy a weekly "This Text in History" post highlighting a major world event that occurred during the month that the installment was published.

Subscribe to the series on your favorite podcast app! You can check it out and see which podcast apps currently carry the feed on Anchor (https://anchor.fm/nml-lordjim). Alternatively, see all of the episodes, show notes, and listen by visiting the Lord Jim page on our website (https://mainemaritime.libguides.com/lordjim).

We hope you enjoy the first episode!

Ann Dyer, MS
Research & Instruction Librarian
Nutting Memorial Library | Maine Maritime Academy
Just a reminder to the library community: the Maine State Law & Legislative Reference Library is taking reference requests remotely even though the library is currently not open.

Using our reference form is the best way to reach us: https://www.maine.gov/legis/lawlib/refemail.htm

If necessary, we are also taking requests by phone and can mail material. Those patrons should call our main phone number (207-287-1600) and leave a message with their question and contact information.

Best regards,

Jessica Lundgren
Senior Law Librarian
Maine State Law & Legislative Reference Library