Southwest Harbor – Brenda Merritt will be showing her paintings at Southwest Harbor Public Library for the month of February. Her show is called “A Tribute to Dad.” After Merritt’s father, William C. Park of Brewer, passed away at 94 she used her art as a way of working through grief and loss.

Merritt works in oil, acrylic and pencil. Her prices range from $10.00 - $800.00 depending on size and medium. All art sold will support the Library’s children’s programs. For more information, call the Library at 244-7065.
